SANITARY WASHABLE

HALL'S DISTEMPER

THE KING OF WATER PAINTS.

The scientific ideal of a wall covering is one that is not only beautiful, but easy to keep clean, germ proof, absolutely fast in colour, and when applied a thorough disinfectant. No wall covering conforms so closely to these requirements as Hall's Sanitary Washable Distemper which has the important advantages of being most economical and durable.

Hall's Distemper is applied with a whitewash brush, saving much in the cost of labour.

It sets hard, kills microbes and vermin, and disinfects.

It is made in a wide range of 70 colours, including rich dark as well as light tints. The colours never fade, enabling furniture and pictures to be moved about a room without showing discoloured walls.

Hall's Distemper decoration may be washed by lightly sponging down with clean tepid water. It remains clean, sweet and fresh for years.

Shade card and full particulars post free on application to:—

PAINTED MATCH

H.K.C.C. v. NAVY

H.K.C.C. beat the Navy in an interesting match on the Club's ground. Batting first, Navy started badly with 1 for 17, for 17.3 for 27. There the procession stopped. Stephenson and Bonham Carter lifted the score to 74, and then Greig took Stephenson's place and the innings was declared with 189 for six wickets. Stephenson hit eight boundaries and had a five. Greig got a six off Woodhouse, and seven fours. Jones also got a six (off Farthing) and five fours. Crole-Rees hit another six off Farthing. Pearce and Turner for H.K.C.C. put up a characteristic first wicket partnership, compiling 89. Turner went first, after getting six boundaries. Farthing held up the wicket until 158 showed, Pearce had 16 fours to his credit when he was dismissed just seven short of his century. Woodhouse took his place, his score of 28 consisting of a six off Sheffield and five fours. Farthing retired at 187, and Donnelly and Woodhouse passed the Navy score, H.K.C.C. winning by seven wickets.

HONGKONG CHALLENGE CUP COMPETITION.

Teams representing the Hongkong Club and Army met on the Club ground, on Saturday, in the second game of this competition. The teams turned out as advertised. In the opening stages of the game the Army showed to advantage, getting little headway. Smyth, picking up for the Club, broke away and giving the dummy to Davis, swerved, and, beating Mockridge, went on and scored. Wallace was entrusted with the kick and failed to convert from a difficult angle. Club 3 points.

From the kick on the Army pressed and looked like scoring. Tomory on one occasion almost getting through. Several free kicks were given against the Club, but the Army gained no material advantage from them.

The Club forwards now took charge of the scrums and worked the ball half the length of the field. Murray, in attempting to pick up from one of the scrums, fumbled the ball, and Macnamara, receiving for the Club, raced away and, breaking through, touched down almost under the post. Wallace made no mistake from the place kick and converted. Club 8 points.

The teams crossed over, with the Club leading by 8 points to nil.

On restarting, the Club brought Rouse up to stand off half. Brown going outside. Albaster played a forcing game, and took the ball well down the field on several occasions. Unfortunately his ankle gave way and he retired to the full back position vacated by Rouse.

Hall and Logan failed on several occasions to gather the ball, thereby losing good chances for the Club. Tomory broke away and, running through, touched down for the Army. Murray, taking the kick, failed to place between the uprights. Club 8 points, Army 3.

Free kicks against the Club became frequent hereabout for feet up in the scrums, not putting the ball down when tackled, and for offside play. From one of the free kicks Murray just failed to score a penalty goal, missing by inches.

Play now settled down in the Army 23 and it looked as if the Club must add to their score, but Mockridge, the Army full back, was playing a very sound game and kept the Club from breaking through.

Just on closing time, Ralston had a very hard luck in not scoring, being brought down almost on the line. No further scoring took place and the Club left the field winners of a hard game by 3 points to 3. Comdr. N. A. Woodhouse, R.N., was the referee.

It was a very good game throughout and, except in the opening minutes, the play was mostly in favour of the Club.

HONGKONG LEAGUE.

SOUTH CHINA ATHLETIC, 1; H.M.S. "TITANIA," 0.

These teams met on the Navy "A" ground before a crowd of four thousand. The game throughout was well contested and the result was in doubt until the final whistle sounded. The S.C.A. started the game, and soon put the sailors on the defensive. Off-side against Leung relieved, and from the free kick the sailors got well down but sent in wide. Play opened very fast and each goal was visited in turn. The Chinese pressed for a time, but their forwards were slow in front of goal and the Navy defence had plenty of time to clear. Ip Kau, receiving close in, should have scored, but he muddled the pass and the goalkeeper ran out and cleared. Again Ko Kin Fan sent in wide from close range. The Chinese forwards eased up every time they were tackled. Keeping up the pressure Leung headed out to Ko Kin Fan, but the left back intercepted and kicked behind. The Titania transferred to the other end and had hard lines in not opening the score as the left wing beat the backs and sent in a slow shot that the Chinese goalkeeper stopped but let the ball out of his hands, and Chan So running back, just kicked out in time. Midfield play followed, with the Chinese having the better of the exchanges. Half time arrived with no score.

On resuming, the Chinese again took the aggressive. In a scrimmage in the sailors' half, Lai Sai Fook was injured and a slight halt was made. From the throw down, Leung sent across to Au Kit Sang who went in and forced a corner. The kick was well taken and Kym Fook headed straight to the goalkeeper, who caught and threw out. Ko Kin Fan received and sent in a first timer that beat the sailors' goalkeeper and opened the scoring for the Chinese five minutes after the re-start.

Sang by this reverse, the sailors began a vigorous attack and the Chinese defence was sorely tried, but proved its mettle, and the sailors were forced to retire to defend their own goal where shots were sent in by Ip Kau and Au Kit Sang. The sailors tried hard to level up the play, but Chan So cleared with a huge kick that went behind at the other end. From the goal kick the Titania worked down by swinging the ball about and the S.C.A. goalkeeper did well to clear a shot from the left wing.

The Titania returned and Chan So missed and let the centre forward in who had the misfortune to handle the steady pass himself so shot. Give and take play followed, and the game continued very fast.

The sailors could not get through the defence, and the whistle sounded for time, leaving the Chinese winners of a hard fought game by the only goal scored.

The Chinese deserved to win on the run of the play. Both their wing forwards were below their usual standard of play, showing nervousness when tackled by the opposing backs. The sailors played a good game and should not be discouraged by their reversal in the first game in their League programme. Mr. Jones was the referee.

"TAMAR," 2; "AMBROSE," 1.
These teams met on the Navy "B" ground before a good number of blue jackets, the Tamar winning by the odd goal in three. The Ambrose, although fielding a weak side, were soon attacking and Mitch was called upon to run out and clear. The Ambrose returned, and the forwards, coming down in a bunch, had Mitch guessing, and Monkhouse sent into the net, giving the Ambrose the lead after a few minutes' play. From the centre kick the Ambrose got down again and forced a corner which Handford cleared, and the Tamar were soon round the Ambrose goal where a bombardment was set up, but Elsie, playing a very sound game, kept them out. Keeping up the pressure, Meggs received a pass from Bontley and beat Elsie with a fast shot, thereby bringing the scores level. The Tamar again attacked, but Boylin cleared. Play was again round the Ambrose goal, where off-side against Adams relieved. The Tamar returned, and Elsie, running out of goal to clear a pass from Bontley, missed. Adams, being close in, put the ball into an empty goal. The Tamar still kept up the pressure and Elsie dealt with shots from every one in the front line. With the Tamar attacking the whistle sounded for half time, with the score 2 goals to 1 in favour of the Tamar.

On resuming, Tamar got well down, where Heaps sent a long shot over the bar. From the goal kick Eldridge went down the wing, and Handford was forced to kick to touch. From the throw in Heaps went away and sent over a long pass, which Elsie turned behind the upright. Heaps took the corner kick and sent the ball behind. The Tamar, keeping up the pressure, sent in several shots that went wide of the mark. Play was then more even, and the Ambrose returned to the attack, but their forwards failed in front of goal. Mitch was called upon to save several shots in the closing stages of the game. No scoring took place in the second half, and the whistle sounded, leaving the Tamar winners. Mr. Hollands controlled the game.

WILTSHIRE, 1; KOWLOON, 0.
These teams met at Sookampoo before a good crowd. The Wiltshires were without goals, otherwise the teams were fully represented. Play was very fast throughout and the Wiltshires ran out winners by one goal to nil. Early in the game the Wiltshires were awarded a corner and Warren, taking the kick, sent well in, where Crocker punched out to where Swanborough was standing, and the latter player sent in a first timer that gave Crocker no chance. Mr. Wells was the referee.

CLUB RES. 3; OILERS UNITED, 5.

The Reserves kept the Oilers waiting on the Navy ground until 2.50 p.m., and then turned out with only eight men. Borsen, Goldenberg and Macdonald being missing. Early in the game the Club forced a corner which was well placed and Goldman sent into the net, giving the Club an early lead. The Club, playing the one back game, put the Oilers offside on several occasions. Before half time the Oilers equalised through Pye. Resuming, the Club took the lead again through Goldman, who, receiving from a corner kick, again beat the goalkeeper. From then onwards the Oilers got the mark of their opponents and adding four more goals, two from Bath and one each from Williams and Pye, ran out winners by five goals to two. Mr. Masters was the referee.

ST. JOSEPH'S, 4; STAFFS, 1.

Playing at home, the college boys defeated the Staffs by four goals to one. During the first half Hyndman and Miller scored for St. Joseph's and Long replied for the Staffs. In the second half Ogley and Hyndman added further goals for the College, while the Staff failed to add further to their score.

"CARLISLE" RES., 5; INDIANS, 0.

This game went mostly in favour of the Navy men, who being released from first division football turned out a strong side. Early in the game the sailors were awarded a penalty for hands, and Fawcett, taking the kick, sent in wide. Shortly after Fawcett, beating all opposition, sent over a pass, which Dickinson headed passed the goalkeeper. Eldridge struck the upright with a fast shot, which rebounded to play, and the Indians took the leather down where Runjahn sent a shot which the goalkeeper stopped and doing a bit of gallery play, bounced the ball outside the penalty area, where he was smartly pulled up for hands. The Indians returned and forced a corner which Runjahn headed over the top. The Carlisle added four more goals—one by Fawcett from a penalty—the sailors winning by 4 goals to nil.

S.C.A. RES., 0; CLUB DE RECREIO, 0.

On the Chinese ground these Clubs played a goalless draw. The Chinese attacked through the game, and the Club's defence are to be congratulated for keeping them out.

UNITED, 2; KOWLOON RESERVES, 1.

These teams met on the Club ground at 2.30 p.m., the United winning by 2 goals to 1. The Kowloon Res. started with ten men, but the eleven came on about two minutes after the start. In the first half May sent in a shot that Mackay kicked out where the ball struck Adams, the Kowloon back, and bounded into goal. May scored for the United in the second half.

The Police R.C.A., and the Punjabia B.C.A. Reserve matches were scratched, as in one case the Police were unable to get together a team, owing to their players being away on duty at the Kowloon fire, and in the other the Punjabis could not turn out owing to a festival clashing with the fixture.

HONGKONG F.C. CHALLENGE SHIELD COMPETITION.

Entries for the above competition close on Monday, January 17th, and a meeting of representatives of Clubs entering is to take place in the Club pavilion, Happy Valley, on Tuesday, January 18th, when the draw will take place. Clubs intending to enter this Competition should send in their names to the Hon. Secretary, H.K.F.C., Mr. Purvis, c/o Jardine, Matheson & Co., Ltd., not later than January 17th.

LADIES GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP YESTERDAY'S FINAL WON BY MISS HEALING.

The final for the Ladies' Golf Championship was played off, yesterday, over the Old Course at Fanling, the match being 18 holes, match play. As in all finals, the play was not of a high standard, owing to nerves. Miss Healing beat Mrs. Drew by 2 up and 1 to play, after a very well-contested game.

THE GAME IN DETAIL.

At the first hole Miss Healing took the honour and hit a good length ball which had the misfortune to find its way into the ditch on the right. Mrs. Drew missed her drive and was fortunate in being just over the bunker in front of the tee, from which position she hit a nice iron shot towards the green. Miss Healing played a nice mashie shot from the ditch which finished just short of the green. Mrs. Drew's third was very short, which gave Miss Healing the chance of winning the hole in 3.

At the second hole Miss Healing again hit a good tee shot. Mrs. Drew missed her ball. From a bad position in the rough she only got a short distance with her mashie, and had to play her third, which was just short of the bunker guarding the green. Miss Healing then played a good second just short of the green. Mrs. Drew's fourth was a nicely hit shot but was too strong and went to the back of the green, her putt was also too strong, so Miss Healing won the hole comfortably in 5.

From the short third Miss Healing was hole high on the left of the green and Mrs. Drew was very short, on the side of the hill, with a shot which deserved better luck. She made a good recovery but was just too far from the hole to sink her putt. As Miss Healing's approach putt was practically dead, she won the hole, and was three up.

Both players hit good drives from the fourth tee and were well placed for their second. Miss Healing played hers with a baffle and was just short. Mrs. Drew hit a good brassie shot and was, at the back of the green.

Both players showed signs of nerves and played several half-hearted shots before Mrs. Drew eventually won the hole in 8, after laying her opponent a half stymie, which she failed to negotiate.

Mrs. Drew was now 2 down and took the honour for the first time. She cut her tee shot which hit the bank in the rough and came back on to the course. Miss Healing hit a beautifully straight tee shot. Mrs. Drew hit a fair second and was unlucky in running just over the green with a nicely played third. Miss Healing followed suit by playing her second just over the left edge of the green. Mrs. Drew failed to get her fourth back on to the green and had to play five. This shot was very short and it appeared to be an easy win for Miss Healing, but she threw away her advantage by moving her third a matter of about one yard. However, Mrs. Drew seemed determined to lose the hole and proceeded to take three putts, giving her opponent a win in 7, against 8.

At the next hole both players had good drives but Miss Healing's was played too much to the left of the course and finished in the rough. She made a good recovery with her mashie, but spoiled her effort by playing a bad baffle shot which was sliced into a ditch in the rough. Mrs. Drew played a good second, but kept too much to the right and was in the rough also. In getting out she pulled her mashie into the rough on the opposite side of the course. Miss Healing had to pick up and lose two strokes, which cost her the hole, her opponent being down in 6.

From the seventh tee Mrs. Drew hit a fair iron shot, which was just short of the green. Miss Healing played a baffle and landed her ball on the old green. Neither player put her second near enough to the hole for a three, the result being a half in 4.

From the next tee Mrs. Drew hit a poor drive but was fortunate in being straight, whereas Miss Healing's drive found the valley on the right. Mrs. Drew played a poor second, but was again straight. Miss Healing made a good attempt to put her second on the fairway and was unlucky in hitting the top of the bank and rolling back into the rough. She made no mistake with her third and was well on the way to the green. Mrs. Drew played a beautiful third with her mashie, to within 5 yards of the hole, and as Miss Healing was short with her fourth, she won the hole in 5.

Mrs. Drew took the honour from the 9th tee and sliced her drive badly into the valley. Miss Healing hit a nice straight shot. Mrs. Drew had a good lie for her second and made a splendid recovery getting her ball well down the course. Miss Healing topped her second and third badly and lost the advantage she had gained with her drive. Mrs. Drew played a good third with her brassie and was within easy reach of the green. Miss Healing played a jigger for her fourth and just failed to reach the green. Mrs. Drew failed to take advantage of this fact and the hole was halved in 7. Thus the turn was reached with Miss Healing leading by one hole, her approximate score for the 9 holes being 53. Mrs. Drew's approximate score was also 53.

GREAT FIRE AT KOWLOON. MESSRS. BAILEY & CO.'S SHIP- YARD DESTROYED. ENORMOUS DAMAGE.

A disastrous fire which raged between mid-night on Friday and mid-day on Saturday almost completely destroyed Messrs. W. S. Bailey & Co.'s shipyard at Tokawan, Kowloon.

The first alarm was given shortly after mid-night, and this was succeeded, shortly afterwards, by the general alarm. The fire seemed to have broken out in two or three places simultaneously but it is not yet clear whether this was due to the work of incendiaries or was caused by sparks carried by the strong northeasterly breeze, which prevailed at the time. The Fire-Brigade was informed that workmen going off duty at mid-night left candles burning and this may have started the fire.

The premises consisted of a number of wooden structures, brick-built offices and machine shops, stores, fitting shops, slipways and an oil-store (the last-named was saved from the fire, or the outbreak might have caused even greater damage than it did).

The Kowloon Brigade, with No. 2 engine, was first on the scene, Mr. T. H. King, Assistant Superintendent of Police, in charge. It was at once apparent that help would be required and that the fire would have to be attacked from the harbour as well as from land, so the Hongkong Brigade and the fire-boat were requisitioned. The strong wind fanned the flames and spread the conflagration with alarming rapidity, so much so that several times the firemen's lives were endangered. After some hours the walls and roof of the main brick building fell in. The destruction of this portion of the premises involved the loss of plans, records and all office documents, for the fire made it impossible from the start to enter this building and remove any of its contents. But the severest loss is the destruction of the pattern shop where tracings and sketches of great value to the firm were filed.

Two ships under construction on the slipways were involved in the fire; of them nothing remains but a heap of ashes. Other vessels were partially damaged but the firemen succeeded in isolating them from the main conflagration. A great quantity of timber added to the blaze, which lit up the harbour and was visible for many miles. The wind-carried sparks as far as the watchman's lodge at the gate of the shipyard and even that was destroyed. A building only recently completed also suffered destruction.

No estimate of the extent of the damage can yet be given, but it is unlikely that it will be entirely covered by insurance. In any case, documents have been lost whose value no insurance money would replace. Much sympathy with Messrs. Bailey & Co. is expressed in the loss they have suffered.

It was one of life's contrasts that not far away the Kowloon Dock Bell was proceeding; hot coffee and food were sent from the supper room to the firemen, who had a terribly arduous experience. The fire was not in hand until seven or eight o'clock in the morning and not finally extinguished until nearly mid-day.

At the 10th hole the ladies tee was used and both players got nicely away with good drives. Miss Healing hooked her second, and Mrs. Drew sliced, both balls finishing in the rough. Both were short with their thirds, but both players played extremely good run-up shots, and halved the hole in 6.

Both players sliced their tee shots at the 11th, which was eventually won by Miss Healing in 7, against her opponent's 8.

At the 12th hole Miss Healing was just too far with her baffle and Mrs. Drew followed suit with her cleek. Both played nice second and the hole was halved in 4.

At the 13th both players had good drives but Mrs. Drew had the misfortune to find a bad lie from which she got a short second and slicing her third into the rough lost the hole. Miss Healing having played a good second holed out for a 5.

From the 14th tee both players had long drives but they were sliced. Mrs. Drew played a good second, but Miss Healing found trouble and had to give her opponent the hole.

At the 15th both played good shots from the tee and both played good seconds, which resulted in the hole being halved in 6.

Once again both players pushed out their drives and found the rough. Mrs. Drew made a good recovery, and was on the green in two, whereas Miss Healing duffed her second and was short with her third. Mrs. Drew played a beautiful approach putt and won the hole in four. This left Miss Healing 1 up, with two holes to play. Mrs. Drew had the honour from the 17th tee and hit a good ball which was unlucky in just finding the rough. Miss Healing hit a nice straight drive and a beautiful play a mashie and hit a good one. She again used her mashie for her third, and was just short. Miss Healing half topped her third, but it ran on to the middle of the green, and she won the hole in 5 against 6, thus winning the Championship. Her approximate score for the 8 holes was 45 against her opponent's 44.

CORRESPONDENCE. RUMOURS ABOUT FRENCH BANKS.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG DAILY PRESS"]

SIR,—I have had the honour of communicating to the local press a telegram addressed to this Consulate by the French Government, to deny the rumours of the so-called difficult situation of the Banque Industrielle de Chine, and of the Société Centrale des Banques de Province.

The fact that my Government has addressed such a telegram to its Consuls shows clearly that the cause of its solicitude exceeds in importance what might be called a slight agitation. The wounds inflicted on France during the late war are still open; it is, therefore, unnecessary to recall the tragical and sorrowful phases of that war, which, in five years, laid low on the battlefields one million and a half of our brave soldiers, and put two more millions of French citizens in a permanent state of infirmity. The devastation intended and cleverly calculated by the German armies (with regard to France) are resumed in the following facts:—

3,000,000 hectares of land were ravaged and more than three thousand villages destroyed. The surface destroyed represents 1/10 of the area of France, and the value involved 1/3 of its commercial and industrial productive strength.

Such are the disasters which the Germans are obliged to indemnify, and our Allies pledged themselves to obtain the exact fulfilment of this indemnification, according to the Treaty of Versailles.

Up to the present day, Germany has not yet deposited one centime to discharge herself of her debt, but the last limits are drawing near, and she will be forced to fulfil her obligations.

It will be, therefore, easily understood that, unable to escape any longer from the demands of a delayed but necessary justice, all the elements likely to ruin the credit of France, are brought into play, in order to trouble the public order, by attempting, firstly, to destroy her economic order.

These calculations, which it would be difficult not to recognize in the late disturbances, are useless, for the French nation united in victory as it was in war, has understood from the very first that its reconstruction depended upon its perseverance in work and order, and, therefore, nothing can turn away the French people from their firm resolve to attain this end.

What may perhaps surprise public opinion, however, is the indifference which Reuters' Agency employs in indicating the sources of these false rumours, which are propagated to cast a doubt on our national credit. It is not sufficient, certainly, to simply point out the existence of certain rumours; it would be more useful to the public to know their origin, and this fact Reuters' Agency should not ignore.

It is not possible that these attacks, which are as prejudicial to our country as the War itself, come from our Allies; their sense of honour raises them above suspicion.

Consequently, the only sound and logical conclusion which can be drawn from these facts is that these evil rumours have been circulated by unreconciled enemies of France for some inconceivable end or from selfish motives. Nothing which touches our national honour can be of indifference to the French Government, and I can affirm that it is not to be doubted that, if necessary, the credit of our large financial establishments will remain inseparable with that of France—Yours, etc.

L. REYNAUD,
Consul for France.

THE WAR MEMORIAL.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG DAILY PRESS"]

SIR,—I beg the hospitality of your columns to express the opinion that a copy of the Cenotaph, reduced, if necessary, to proportions suitable to the surroundings, would nobly serve the purpose of the war memorial to be erected on "the Finest Site."

In view of the extent to which the arresting beauty of the original monument stirred the imagination of the home public it would seem fairly certain that a reproduction here would satisfy the artistic instincts of the generality of the British community. No doubt in any highly individualized community unanimity in such matters is difficult of attainment but I suggest that in this particular matter these upon whom the responsibility rests can hardly go wrong in adopting the design which evoked the popular feeling so strikingly manifested at the heart of the Empire and so widely acclaimed throughout its borders—Yours, etc.

OLD RESIDENT.

ARMED ROBBERS CAPTURED AT WEST POINT. GOOD NIGHT'S WORK BY THE POLICE.

The police captured a band of armed robbers at West Point in the early hours of Saturday morning. A house in Cuttle Fish Lane was entered at about 12.20 a.m.; the inmates of the house were all bound and gagged and huddled together in one cubicle, and the place was ransacked. Clothing and jewellery worth about $1,000 dollars were taken.

After the robbers had gone the inmates hastened to give the alarm and the police, under Inspector Willis, were so promptly at work that they were able to run the thieves to earth within a short time. Three were tracked to an empty house in the next street, and two of them were handcuffed before they could offer any resistance. The other drew a revolver; it was knocked out of his hand and the man dashed through the open window on to the verandah and so to the house next door. Here he took refuge under the bed of a blind woman. When discovered, he was wearing three silk coats, part of the stolen property.

The Chinese police and detectives did very useful work in connection with the affair. Later the same night two other men were arrested at another house in the neighbourhood; they had the bulk of the stolen property in their possession. Between them they had two loaded revolvers, one pistol and four daggers. The stolen jewellery was discovered in their shoes. Some gags, wire and ropes were found on the premises. It is believed that the prisoners form the whole of the gang.

MORE GRAND CONCERTS BY DISTINGUISHED ARTISTS.

It will be seen from advertisements appearing to-day that Grand Concerts are announced to be given at the Peak Club on Tuesday and at the Theatre Royal on Wednesday by Mlle. Vera Mirowska, a distinguished Art-Dansea, and M. Leo Podolsky, a brilliant pianist. Both have been in the Far East before, and they have just reached Hongkong from Sumatra and Java. Mlle. Mirowska is regarded as the best exponent of the art of the famous Isadora Duncan, and wherever she has appeared has captivated critical audiences by her art. She has not previously performed, we believe, in Hongkong, but M. Podolsky was here in 1916, and lovers of music who heard him then will not miss opportunities of hearing him again, for he is a pianist of the first rank.

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS.

The following appointments, etc., are announced in the Gazette.
Hon. Mr. C. Severn, C.M.G., LL.D., resumed duty as Colonial Secretary.
Mr. R. E. Lindell to be Second Police Magistrate.
Mr. N. L. Smith to be Superintendent of Imports and Exports.

Mr. S. B. C. Rose to act as Secretary for Chinese Affairs and Registrar of Marriages and to be an Official Member of the Executive and Legislative Councils.
Dr. F. T. Kert to be Health Officer of the port; vice Dr. G. P. Jordan, retired.

CHEFALO AND PALERMO.

CROWDED HOUSES AT THEATRE ROYAL.

There were crowded houses both at the matinee and evening performances given by Chefalo and Palermo at the Theatre Royal on Saturday. It was, however, at the matinee that the sense of enjoyment was more tense, for not only the theatre was packed with children of all ages, but there was a spontaneity about the applause, and even Mr. Chefalo was carried away by the enthusiasm of his youthful admirers. Little boys and girls shrieked with delight when Mr. Chefalo produced with marvellous dexterity ducks and pigeons from all sorts of impossible places, and as some children were even invited to co-operate in the performance of the tricks it became more like a large family party than a formal conjuring entertainment. Madame Palermo was equally successful in her clever illusions.

Chefalo and Palermo are now appearing for three days at the new Victoria Theatre. There is a matinee on the last day, Wednesday. Those who scoff at the hollowness of conjuring entertainments should see Chefalo and Palermo to realise their mistake.

AMERICA AND JAPAN.

It would appear from a cable we publish to-day that Japan's position at Vladivostok, and we suppose, generally in Siberia, is to be seriously challenged by the United States Government, as a result of the shooting of an American Naval officer by a Japanese sentry.

Admiral GLEAVES left Manila on the New Orleans last week for Vladivostok to inquire into the circumstances. The incident, the cable tells us, is not likely to be settled by formal expressions of regret, which have poured in from Japanese official sources. We presume the incident referred to relates to the shooting of Lieutenant W. H. LARSON, engineer-officer of the U.S. warship Albatross, though the brief reports we have seen have not made it clear that the shooting was done by a sentry. The Washington correspondent of The Times says the United States refuses to recognise the right of Japan to maintain sentries at Vladivostok, and that a demand may be made for a substantial modification of Japanese military measures at that port.

If that demand is formulated and presented it will certainly bring us very near to the war between the United States and Japan that so many people have lately come to regard as the world's "next war." For some time past there have been other questions—like the Anti-Alien legislation in California, and the Naval building programmes of the two countries—which have created considerable tension in the diplomatic relations, and the shooting incident at Vladivostok will greatly increase the tension. When we bear in mind the Anglo-Japanese Alliance,

and the fact that its renewal is under contemplation it seems not without significance that Sir AUCLAND GORDON, the British Ambassador to Washington,
should have been summoned to London
at the present time to discuss with the Government various questions which are under consideration not only between Great Britain and the United States, but the negotiations which have been proceeding between America and Japan with respect to the California Question. There is no mention of the Vladivostok question though that is one of supreme importance if America contemplates making the demand indicated by the Times' correspondent at Washington.

In view of recent assertions of Japanese
"military rights" at Vladivostok, a demand from Washington for "a substantial modification" of Japan's military measures in the Russian port would certainly be deeply resented, and create a very grave situation. Japan has a General Officer at Vladivostok and from a communication which that officer recently addressed to the Vladivostok authorities we derive the impression that Japan is prepared to assert what are called the rights of her Army there under agreements made with the Governments of the Maritime Province. Some six or seven weeks ago the People's Assembly at Vladivostok, by resolution carried by an overwhelming majority, decided in favour of union with the Far Eastern Government established at Chita, which has proclaimed the whole territory from the river Salanga to the Pacific Ocean to be a Republic. The Japanese General's communication was in the nature of a protest against this decision. It expressed a fear that the orders or instructions issued by the Government at Chita might conflict with the agreements concluded
between the Japanese military authorities and the various Russian authorities in the maritime province, and that "the rights" of Japan and her Army might be violated. General TAKAYAMA wrote:
"If this should come to pass, the Japanese Army, notwithstanding the position which will be taken by the Chita Government, having in mind its valid interests, would be forced to have recourse to suitable measures for direct relations with the Vladivostok Government and its institutions. One may fear that in these circumstances regrettable results are likely to arise, for which the Japanese Army will not hold itself responsible." We imagine that the first request the Government of the Far Eastern Republic would be likely to make would be for the complete withdrawal of the armed forces of a foreign power from the territory of the Republic. Japan has not yet officially recognised the Government at Chita and its Republic, and in the circumstances
would not be likely to obey its behests.
It is clear that Japan is not disposed to voluntarily resign the "legitimate rights" acquired by her Army in agreement with local Russian authorities, but whether she would do so in obedience to American dictation is another question.

The attitude adopted by the United States towards the League of Nations Covenant makes us wonder whether the people of the United States would be prepared to force the issue.
Coming from a single nation, such a demand might easily be provocative of war. The same demand presented by the League of Nations would, in all probability, be straightway accepted and obeyed. A consideration of no small importance is that a nation which had been thus obliged to renounce what it was pleased to regard as "legitimate rights" would not be likely to cherish for long, against the whole world, the same animosity, rancour and desire for revenge that action by an individual Power would certainly entail. In the coming discussions as to the future attitude of the United States towards the League of Nations, a case of this nature
may be of some use in argument.

The Government of the Federated Malay States is offering inducements for the cultivation of cane sugar.

The total output of the Kailan Mining Administration's mines for the week ending January 1st, amounted to 100,512 tons,
and the sales during the period to 81,854
tons.

We have been requested by Mrs.
Maurice Minney, who has consented to sing at Madame Gordon's concert, to state that she has only played leading roles in amateur work in Calcutta and not as erroneously stated in our paragraph of Saturday.

The House of Representatives in the Philippine Legislature has passed a Bill appropriating 25,000 pesos to defray the expenses of the World Press Convention which will probably be invited to meet in Manila in April instead of in Sydney.

The body of a Chinese woman, aged about 35 years, was recovered from Kowloon Bay last week. From certain marks upon the body there is reason to believe that the woman met her death through foul play. The body lies at Kowloon Mortuary awaiting identification.

According to a report of the Mitsui Bank,
the total amount of capital invested in new enterprises and the expansion of existing enterprises in 1920 in Japan was Y.8,670,000,000 which shows an increase of Y.2,380,000,000 compared with 1919 and Y.3,480,000,000 compared with 1918.

The Fire Brigade was called to a house
at 162, Connaught Road at 3 a.m. yesterday morning. The upper storey, used as a dwelling-house, was alight, but the firemen were able to confine the outbreak to the one floor, and the remainder of the premises only suffered some damage by water. The adjoining houses were not affected.

The Philippine Government is now floating a 15 million dollar bond issue in the United States in order to avert the threatened bankruptcy in the shipping industry. Mr. Whitaker, an agent of the Philippine Treasury, is en route to the United States to dispose of these bonds.
The owners of the inter-island steamship fleets voted to tie up 30 per cent. of their ships in the coastwise trade on January 1st. This action is necessitated by the business slump.

Members of the Institution of Engineers and Shipbuilders, spent an enjoyable evening on Saturday, when a concert and dance took place. A number of lady visitors were present but the dancers were not so numerous as usual, owing to the fact that the Kowloon Dock Ball was held on the previous evening. At the concert songs were rendered by the Misses Frost, Messrs. T. G. Paterson, C. Edgumbe and F. H. Farthing. Mr. Farthing also acted as accompanist.

The Bishop of Victoria left Hongkong
yesterday, for a visit to Pakhoi and Liochow, in the extreme south of the Diocese. He expects to return on or about January 26th. There is at Pakhoi, in connection with the work of the Church,
a Leper Hospital with 160 beds, and a General Hospital with 60 beds. Before the war there were three doctors carrying on the medical work in connection with these hospitals. At the present moment the entire work is in the hands of two nurses.

There is now a petition before the Civil Governor of Kwangtung from a body of citizens asking for the abolition of the brothels in the Province. The reasons given, says the Canton Times, are that, since the Government is able to afford the cost of more than $6,000,000 yearly from the stopping of issuing gambling licenses,
it can easily do away with the $800,000
a year from the women traffic; that the Government is now putting a stop to unlicensed prostitution, while the open houses of ill fame are just as bad, but only share a part of the revenue with the Government; that Shanghai has begun to abolish its brothels also. Aside from these, the petitioners have also advanced many moral and health reasons why this infamous traffic should be stopped.

Those who remember the late Mr. G.
Friedland, who for many years was the manager of the Norddeutscher Lloyd in Hongkong and was very popular among all classes of the community, will be interested in the following paragraph from the Sydney Bulletin: Died at Sydney Hospital a few days ago a German who was anything but a Hun. His name was Friedland, and his star was the Prussian Minister in Hanover before that little State was forcibly absorbed into the German Empire. One of the sons was German Consul in China at the outbreak of the war, and another was general manager of one of the biggest German steamship lines, but their just-dead brother was a rebel all his life. Refusing to serve in the German Army, he left the country for ever.
But his extreme radicalism got him into trouble in Sydney at the time of the Boer War, and he left for Africa with the intention of fighting with the Boers. However, some incidental adventures changed his views, and he fought three years with the British. The Great War brought him evil times, especially as he refused to wear
the ribbons that might have made things easier for him, and towards the end he looked much older than his 45 years. All through he was the sort of man who would give his last pair of socks to a friend.

OBITUARY.

MR. J. HIGGINBOTHAM.

The news of the death of Charles J.
Higginbotham, of Hongkong, in Soura-
baya on January 12th, has come as a shock to his many friends in the Colony. Mr.
Higginbotham came to Hongkong in 1907
as a teacher at the Ellis Kadoris School.
About 1910 he joined the Bandman Company as an actor, and went on a tour.
Some nine years ago he entered the employ of John D. Hutchinson & Co. For some time he had been suffering from gastritis
and he went on a voyage with his friend
Captain Walker, the master of the steamer
Hal Yang, to Sourabaya. The weather was bad, and the rough treatment the ship received aggravated his illness, and he died in hospital at Six jute mills in Calcutta have been closed owing to the shortage of coal which is due to labour troubles and defective rolling stock. The exports to Sabang and Singapore will be stopped immediately. No bunker coal will go to Aden after the end of January. Steamers bound for the West from India will be allowed only sufficient to take them three days beyond Port Said. Ships going East will similarly be restricted.

AGAINST BIG SHIP.

PROBABLE DECISION OF IMPERIAL DEFENCE SUB-COMMITTEE.

LONDON, January 16th.

The Daily Chronicle's Parliamentary correspondent says there is reason to believe that the Sub-Committee of the Council of Imperial Defence which is considering the desirability of building big battleships will decide against the continuation of the "big ship" policy. The preponderating effect of the evidence adduced points to this in a definite and practical way. It is probable that the decision will be based on the ruinous cost of big ships and the attendant aircraft, also of building sufficient dock harbour accommodation which will nullify the endeavours to reduce the war debt.

SUGGESTION TO PRESIDENT WILSON.

WASHINGTON, January 16th.

SIR AUCKLAND GEDDES.

SUMMONED TO LONDON.

WASHINGTON, January 13th.

Sir Auckland Geddes is shortly going to London, in response to a summons to confer with the Premier and Lord Curzon.

AMERICAN PRESSMEN CAUGHT NAPPING.

LONDON, January 16th.

An astonishing feature in connection with Sir Auckland Geddes' departure for England is that the American Pressmen were caught napping. None even ferreted out the fact of his intended absence, which was only subsequently officially announced. The Ambassador's name did not appear in the steamer list. He only appeared on deck after the vessel started.

According to a New York message it is understood that the only reason for secrecy, which was observed on the State Department's advice, was to avoid the possibility of a Sinn Fein demonstration of which signs were not wanting.

PROBLEMS TO BE DISCUSSED IN LONDON.

NEW YORK, January 15th.

Sir Auckland Geddes has left for London. It is understood that Mr. Lloyd George is anxious to profit by the full in the American political activities generally to discuss the outstanding problems between the two countries, notably, regarding oil supplies, the disposition of the ex-German cables, disarmament, Senator Harding's attitude toward the League of Nations, repayment of debts, the Shidehara-Morris negotiations and the American attitude towards the Japanese question in California.

BERLIN, January 13th.

Herr Gosler, Minister of Defence, has declared that Germany has now fulfilled all conditions of the Treaty as regards the reduction of the Army, which consisted of only 88,000 men and 4,000 officers. As a result of the surrender of tonnage as compensation for the Scapa Flow sinkings, Germany had actually fewer ships than the Treaty allowed. Her flying arm no longer existed. Referring to the reported massing of Polish troops on the border of Upper Silesia, the Minister said there were 140,000 regular troops and 50,000 irregular. The situation was serious as the troops allowed Germany were consequently insufficient.

LATEST CABLES.

FRENCH POLITICS.

M. PERET TO FORM CABINET.

M. Raoul Peret has agreed to form a Cabinet. M. Peret is President of the Chamber.

M. PERET'S DIFFICULT TASK.

LONDON, January 15th.

PARIS, January 15th.

M. Peret has abandoned the task of forming a Cabinet.

M. Briand to form Cabinet.

PARIS, January 15th.

M. Briand has consented to form a Cabinet.

M. BRIAND'S SUCCESS.

PARIS, January 15th.

M. Briand's Cabinet is practically complete, but as all the portfolios have not been definitively allotted the constitution of the Ministry will not be published in the official Gazette till January 16th. It appears, therefore, that the Inter-Allied Conference fixed for January 16th will have to be postponed.

FRENCH PRESS VIEWS.

PARIS, January 13th.

A Havas message says:—Commenting on the Cabinet resignation the papers are inclined to ascribe M. Leygue's fall to lack of energy and settled purpose in managing France's foreign affairs, which, they say, are now of paramount importance. The new Cabinet should include none but first rank personalities.

The papers express confidence in M. Millerand's perspicacity and determination promptly to appoint a new Cabinet and so avoid postponing the International Conference. M. Millerand believes that the new Cabinet's policy can only conform to the policy which M. Millerand so happily initiated when Premier. There is a general belief that the next Cabinet will include some at least of the following statesmen, the former President, M. Poincare, M. Peret now President of the Chamber of Deputies, M. Briand and M. Viviani, both some time Premiers.

Only one person was arrested and Sinn Fein documents and a revolver were found in his pockets. Subsequent investigations revealed a plot to set fire to 60,000 barrels of oil which were in the premises.

LATER.

An Irishman, Kenny, was remanded at the Police Court for a week in connection with the Wandsworth affair. He was charged with shooting with the intent to murder constables, also with feloniously attempting to set fire to oil barrels together with others not under arrest.

EARLIER CABLES.

INCREASE IN OUTRAGES.

LONDON, January 13th.

Intermittent Orders now total 1,298.

MORE VIOLENCE.

LONDON, January 13th.

There is a renewed outbreak of violence in Ireland. Police were ambushed near Crossmaglen, Armagh, two constables being seriously wounded. A relief force from Crossmaglen was also ambushed, one constable being killed and one wounded. ### CHINESE IN LONDON.

RESULT OF RECENT PRESS OUTCRY.

LONDON, January 13th.

The recent Press outcry with regard to the conduct of Chinese and other Asiatic residents in the East End of London was referred to at the London Sessions to-day when an appeal by a Chinaman, against a fine and recommendation of deportation made against him for keeping a disorderly house, resulted in the cancellation of the deportation recommendation owing to the appellant's past good character and because he was married to an English woman.

Sir Ernest Wild, for the appellant, said that the result of the newspaper campaign was that the Chinese colony at Limehouse had been reduced from 4,000 to 200 and the places of these Chinamen, who were mostly well-conducted, had been taken by people of another nationality who were very much worse.

LIFE IN LONDON CHINATOWN.

LONDON, January 16th.

The assertion of Sir Ernest Wild that the population of London's Chinatown has been reduced to 300 has been denied by the Magistrate, Mr. Cairns, of the Thames Police Court who said that there has been no appreciable difference in the size and population of Chinatown during the last twelve months, but as a result of the activity of the Police against immorality, gambling and opium smoking Chinatown is now quieter and more law-abiding than at any time during the last twelve years.

IN THE CITY OF ENDLESS RUSH.

BLINKING IN THE GLARE OF
OF BROADWAY.

["DAILY EXPRESS" SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

New York, November 15th.

This is the city of traffic. There never was anything like it in all the cities of the world since traffic first began. It is fierce in its determination to "get there," and dangerously fast, as we Englishmen judge it, yet it has none of the recklessness of the Place de l'Opera or the Rue de Rivoli, and although it swings along seemingly out of control, it comes to an instantaneous full stop when a policeman blows his whistle. Just one short, shrill blast and the driver who dares to advance an inch is stopped. It is in the volume, the mass, that the traffic of New York staggers the average Londoner.

There seem to be more cars in this city than there are vehicles in London, and it is the constant stream of motor-cars which impresses the stranger more than anything else.

At intervals of roughly a mile there are three towers, each fitted with a red, yellow, and green light. The yellow lights show for a certain period, and while they are on traffic proceeding up or down the avenue has the right of way; at the end of the period, which is about two and a half minutes, the red lights burn for a second as a warning, and almost at once they are replaced by the green. Whereupon all traffic must stop dead, and cars, trucks, vans, and pedestrians from the streets crossing the avenue may go forward.

After one minute and a half the red light shows again, and is immediately followed by the yellow, and the cross traffic must give way to that going along the avenue. The system has made it possible to "navigate" this enormous, Bond-street-Piccadilly, but no one who has not seen it can imagine the absolute gush of motor-cars which emerges from Thirty-fourth or Forty-second or Fifty-ninth-streets when the green lights flash out.

The Subway in New York, which corresponds to the Underground in London, is absolutely typical of the modern spirit of "bustle." New York is built on an island, and as every one knows, the island of Manhattan is long and exceedingly narrow. Consequently the main traffic movement, as far as the Subway goes, is up and down. There are three subways, and these three are crammed in the "rush" hours—4 to 6.30—as no railway was ever crammed before.

It is positively a feat of gallantry to board a train at Times-square first "go-off." You are kneed from behind, butted at in front, gouged and squirmed at on both flanks, and when you do eventually get inside the carriage you may consider yourself lucky indeed if only one chewing New Yorker deposits his gum on your back for convenience, or just to give it a rest.

I do not think that any description of this amazing place would be complete which did not mention the electric signs on Broadway at night. They twinkle, they blub in and out; they go round and round in circles, they twirl at you, they exhort you to smoke this or that cigarette, they show you typewriters and motor-cars and cars playing with spoils of cotton, they dazzle and wink and grin, and the street cars, clank and crash along Broadway as it slants across the island, and the crowds of people of every tongue and hue just love it.

And above the noise of the city, solemn and heavy and insistent, there is the hooping of the liners only a few streets away, down on the water front by the Hudson River, reminding Englishmen of the ocean—and, three thousand miles across, the bright lights of Southampton—the Strand glistening in the rain—Big Ben striking the hour—just Home.

INCOME OF £1,000 A DAY.

NET EARNINGS OF CINEMA
ARTISTS.

Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks are probably enjoying a joint daily income of £1,000.

This, at least, is a fair deduction to be drawn from a study of the negotiations now proceeding between the United Artists Corporation, or the "Big Four," to which the two popular "stars" belong, and the First National Exhibitors' Circuit, of America. The "Big Four" (the other two are Charlie Chaplin and D. W. Griffith) are asking about $100,000 apiece for their films.

This figure must refer to the American rights alone, because the sum they ask for the United Kingdom rights is nearly £30,000. The First National Circuit is willing to pay $100,000 each for Mary and Douglas films, but it declines to pay such a sum for the films of any other artists. If the American rights of Pickford and Fairbanks films produce $100,000, an additional sum of £120,000 may safely be set down for total foreign rights, so that their gross receipts on each film will amount to at least £220,000.

Assuming that each produces an average of three and a half films per year, we get a grand total of £770,000 as the approximate annual receipts from the sale of each star's films. Deduct the enormous sum of £60,000 for a year's cost of film production, and we get a net total of £710,000. It is fair to assume that the income tax collector will take three-quarters of this total, which leaves a net balance of about £157,500 apiece for Douglas and Mary, or a joint daily income of £1,000.

Such earnings, as these, represent very high film rental prices, and there are signs of a boycott in the States against United Artists productions, though the Capitol Theatre in New York, the largest in the world, has offered to book a Fairbanks film, for one week, at a price of £2,500, which is easily a record figure.—Express.
